

HOME & OFFICE AIR FRESHENERS

Smells, textures, different kinds of materials... the combination of all these elements contribute to create cozy, warm atmospheres, or maybe specifically targeted to an specific audience.

Like the packaging itself, fresheners become powerful attraction fields that surround a stay in order to provide personality and make it unique. In Pujolasos we are experts at creating atmosphere tools inspired on nature's organic components.

Pujolasos designs and produces caps and finishes for luxury packaging adapted to every possible form and material. We already have an established expertise strengthen throughout our almost 50 years of history that allows us to advise our clients, from the first stages, such as design concept, to manufacturing of all finishes.
